OUR SOLUTIONS

The Devine Group has offered employee assessments and development tools for almost a half century. We help companies like yours hire smarter, develop talent, and drive results by connecting individual competencies to company performance. All backed by our world-class team. We're talent analytics meets SaaS. Welcome to the Devine Talent Cloud.

HIRING AND SELECTION

The Devine Group's hiring tools have a proven track record of helping companies accurately predict job applicant success in specific roles by analyzing behavioral tendencies and competencies not otherwise evident in a job interview. Predictive analytics greatly limits the risk of the wrong hire. The Devine Group's many tools include: Devine Inventory Hiring, Devine Salaried Selection, Devine Hourly Selection, Devine Math and Reading, Devine Critical Thinking Inventory, Devine InterviewRight, Devine TalentMatch, and Devine Job Model Builder

ONBOARDING

Onboarding employees is an essential bridge between selection and development. Our assessments help discover learning gaps and inherent strengths of new employees so training needs can be addressed. The Devine Group's many tools include: Devine Inventory, Devine Salaried Develop, and Devine Hourly Develop

DEVELOPMENT

Help your leaders and employees achieve their highest potential. Our employee development analyses and reports enable you to assign roles to create your "Dream Team". Development is critical at every stage of an employee's career. The Devine Group's many tools include: Devine Inventory, Devine Inventory Coach, Devine Salaried Develop, Devine Hourly Develop, and Devine 360

TEAM BUILDING

When team dynamics or engagement are identified as an inhibitor to performance, the Devine tools clarify the team's strengths and opportunities, examines how team members and leaders interact, and determines whether those interactions require modification. The Devine Group's many tools include: Devine Inventory Team, Devine Inventory Culture, and Devine Engagement Survey

CASE STUDY

The Devine Group dramatically reduced turnover in key entry level hourly positions by implementing a selection assessment focusing on high impact competencies. Within two years the program reduced annual turnover from 300% to 83% providing a net savings year one of $746,000 and year two of $942,000.
